

PRIVACY NOTE

In Accordance with the Federal Protection Law for Personal Information held by Privates, The Company is committed to treat confidentially the personal information of the Insured and Contractor provided to the purpose of this insurance contract and its use will be in accordance to such law and for the purposes of the insurance contract. Aware of the mentioned, the Contractor and Insured agree to the use or transference of this information to other related or associated Companies in the same group, as well as to national or foreign third parties that are either directly or indirectly involved, in order to provide any information considered to be of its interest, like identification, operation, administration, analysis, offering and promoting goods, products and services and/or commercial prospecting.

The contractor and insured will be able to wield their rights of access, rectification, opposition, cancellation, divulgation, use limitation and consent revocation starting on July 6th, 2012. This consent will be delivered as an application in writing in any of our insurance company offices (addresses are available at www.anaseguros.com.mx), in the head office which is located at Avenida Insurgentes Sur 1685 piso 15, Col. Guadalupe Inn, Deleg. Alvaro Obregón in Mexico City or finally in our before mentioned web page.

The Company will inform the contractor and insured any modification made to this notice by means of a bulletin posted in our web page or sent to the contractor last registered address.